

Is your child having trouble understanding Japanese language at school?

Meguro City municipal schools provide Japanese language instruction service to improve the Japanese language skills of returnees, foreign pupils and students (Also including pupils and students whose parents/guardians have foreign nationalities).

What kind of service do you provide?

Japanese language instruction service is tailored to each child's condition. We cultivate basic conversation and writing skill, and comprehensive Japanese language skill that will lead to school subjects learning. Usually, we provides one-on-one lessons in the special classroom during the class periods.

Who will be teaching?

Full-time teachers will be teaching at 'Japanese Language International Class' in Higashine Elementary School, also at 'Japanese language Class' in Higashiyama, Dendo Elementary School, and Higashiyama Junior High School. The City Board of Education will dispatch authorized instructors who have mastered Japanese language teaching skill to other schools.

Who can use this service?

Japanese language instruction service is available for returnees, foreign pupils and students (Also including pupils and students whose parents/guardians have foreign nationalities) in Meguro City municipal schools, who have difficulty in learning school subjects and daily habits due to insufficient Japanese language skills. In principle, the period of instruction is no more than two years.

How can my child use this service?

The Japanese language instruction service can be provided at any time, depending on your child's condition. If your child has already enrolled in a municipal school in Meguro City, please consult with your school. If not, please consult with the School Management Section of the Board of Education. Japanese Language International Class of Higashine Elementary School

The Japanese Language International Class at Higashine Elementary School is for pupils who attend elementary schools in Meguro City and need Japanese language instruction service. In the Japanese language instruction service, children will work individually or in small groups for about one to four hours a week, depending on their level of Japanese language learning. There are opportunities for pupils to interact with each other through works and presentations, such as art exhibitions and study presentations.

Japanese language class
in Dendo Elementary School

Dendo Elementary School is located in a quiet residential area, and blessed with an excellent environment. Japanese language classes at Dendo Elementary School are held for one to four hours a week, depending on the pupil's level of Japanese language learning, and aim to develop basic Japanese language skills. At the end of each semester (October and March), we inform parents / guardians of their children's progress and how they are doing in the class.

Japanese language class
in Higashiyama Elementary School

Pupils enrolled in Higashiyama Elementary School who need Japanese language instruction service attend the class for one to five hours a week.

Once a month, we have an "English exchange class" after school to provide an opportunity for transferred pupils to make friends.

Japanese language class
in Higashiyama Junior High School

In Higashiyama Junior High School, individualized instruction is provided one to four times a week for about 50 minutes per session, depending on the student's level of Japanese language learning. We also offer remedial classes for students who have not completed their science and social studies, as well as remedial classes during the summer vacation.

Higashiyama Junior High School holds a parent-teacher's meeting twice a year for returnees, foreign students (Also including students whose parents/guardians have foreign nationalities), where parents / guardians can meet with each other and receive the information on children's career paths.

Dispatch of Japanese language instructors to enrolled schools

The Meguro City Board of Education dispatches teaching staffs, or instructors recommended by the Graduate School of Japanese Applied Linguistics of Waseda

University to each school.

We provide Japanese language instruction service once or twice a week for about two hours per session. We also provide various activities such as reading books and news, making crafts, and exchanging works with pupils and students receiving Japanese language instruction at other schools.
